ONLY A YEAR! HARMET BENCHER STOWS
One year ago,—a ringing voice.
A clear blue aye,
And clustering curts of sunny hair,
Too fair to die.

Only a year,—no voice, no smile, No glance of eye. No clustering curis of golden hair, Fair but to die.

One year ago, what loves, what schemes
Far into life!
What joyous hopes, what high resolves,
What generous strife!

The signt picture on the wall,
The burial stone,—
Of all that beauly, life, and joy,
Remain alone!

The grave grows green, the flowers
Above that head;
No sorrowing that of leaf or spray
Says be is dead. No pages or hush of merry birds That sing above, Tells us how coldly slesps below The form we love.

Where hast thou been this year, belo What hast thou seen? What visions fair, what glorious life, Where thou hast been?

The veil! the veil!—so thin, so strong 'Twize us and thee!
The mystic veil! when shall it fall
That we may see?

Not dead, not sleeping, not even goue Bui present still, And waiting for the coming hour Of God's aweet will.

Lord of the living and the dead, We lay in ellence at Thy feet
This sad, sad year!
